I hope a job well done. I shall be happy, if you will forward this mail to Moti.

I hope to travel, or due to expenses, just do anything else.

I still expect to visit Israel in may or june. As I am travelling alone, a hope to find decent and affordable hotels.

Please take care Shalom

Best regards

Dear Ms. Sweetwood

I understand that you are going to share your experience with Moti during your Jerusalem tour with him.

I most highly recommend Moti he has an extensive knowledge of the subject of archaeology as he has a great interest in this in this issue and furthermore he is a university student in relation to matter.

However, Moti has an overwhelming and impressive knowledge of the history of Israel, choose the right moment to visit, e.g. Bethlehem, Masada, Dead Sea, all aspects daily day life in Israel. We asked Moti to tell a lot of the history of Israel. Touring with Mosi is both visiting showplaces but certainly sitting sipping a cup of coffee or tea and just talk with Moti about the life In Israel, Moti's way of life career, or anything, which may interest you.

He also demonstrates a comprehensive knowledge politics, which have always interested him. Just ask for the history of Israel since 1948, and Moti will be able to talk for hours. Moti was so interesting and such a nice and friendly guy to tour with, that we rather think it's was a shame that we, due to our tour plan were not able to another full day trip. There are so many attractions to visit in Jerusalem. We spent 6 days this summer in Jerusalem and we did not see it all, unfortunately.

Moise was so kind as to recommend Moti as our tour guide, and what an excellent choice. Moti came to pick us up at the hotel at 9 o'clock. We were four persons, our 2 girls at the age of 12 and 16 and by wife. The car we were going to use was a large 4-wheel drive with many comforts. Probably of most importance for your comfort, Moti always drive you to the nearest point of the tourist sight, and as a logical consequence of this, you do not need to walk and walk, which you have to bear in mind notice.

We spend a whole day together with Moti visiting the old city, and surroundings, nation of all church Western wall, Tower of David, The Mount of Olives. We could with pleasure spent another day with Mosi, e.g. visiting Yad Vashem museum and many other sights for tourist but certainly for Jews as well.

Next day we went with Moti to Jerusalem and many more attractions. Another tour was not planned, but we could not resist another trip with Moti.

You have to bear in mind, that Moti has the same extensive knowledge of the every part of Israel, Tel Aviv, Jaffa, Haifa, you name it.

Next time we shall visit Israel we will tour with Moti, although I have lived in Israel for 2 years some years ago, and Moti can still show me secret place of interest.

Please enjoy your stay in Israel, the land of hope and Moti.

Shalom

Best regards

Dear Michael,

Thank you so much for taking the time to give me this information. I feel much better hearing this review! I also am booking Moti for a tour for my father and 4 siblings, just slightly older than your daughters, so it sounds like it will be great. Thank you again!

All the best,

Michelle
